THE CITY CHURCHES YESTERDAY spirit, which Christ has given to all his faithful servants. It has been the guiding arm of the church and will continue to be a light unto the people until the great work is accomplished. It has revealed things past and made known to the people partly to prepare the people for the second coming of the Redeemer, when he leaves the heavenly mansions to reward the faithful and take vengeance on those who disobey him. Parents are often negligent of their duties to children. Physically they are well cared for, but many go through life in mental hunger. Two children were noticed in a kindergarten not long ago, the one happy and buoyant, the other seemingly morose and melancholy. The result of this was traced to their homes. The boy with the laughing voice found love and encouragement at home, while the sad one was constantly greeted with rebuffs from his parents. Such conditions prevailing in tender years will mould the future of the child. All are called to develop their powers to the utmost and this is genuine education. It will not do to give way to that spirit of undue ease. Like the firefly that only shines when on the wing, so is the mind. It only reaches its best abilities while on the wing. If suffering with piles, it will interest you to know that De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. CAPTAIN DONOVAN RETURNED TO HIS POST YESTERDAY.

Was Warmly Greeted by a Host of Friends-Raid on the Saloon Men Continued and Several Arrests

Captain Donovan returned to duty on the police force yesterday, and was warmly congratulated by hosts of friends as he walked the streets in full uniform.

The police were very vigilant yester day in looking after violators of the saloon Sunday closing laaw. The regular patrolmen are so well known that they labor under great difficulties in catching any of the craft actually selling liquor, so a change of tactics was adopted and Officers O. P. Pratt and Shannon, who usually do duty as mounted police in the outskirts, were detailed to watch suspected salsons.

John Price, bartender at the Cullenbar, was arrested by those officers and bar, was arrested by those officers and charged with selling liquor on Sunday. He put up $25 for his appearance today. The police claim that he was caught in the act of selling whisky to two customers, and a portion of the liquor was selzed in a glass on the counter and taken to the sation to be introduced as evidence at the trial. The Valley house was "pulled" twice, that is, the bartender and the proprietor of the bar were. The first time that is, the bartender and the proprietor of the bar were. The first time was early in the day, when R. A. Biglow was arrested and in the evening John Kay was taken in. Each put up $25 for his appearance today.

A ruid was also made on Matthews & Dalquist's saloon, in which there was said to be a crowd of people. However, they had all disappeared before the officers gained admittance. Some beer glasses which appeared recently to have contained liquor were found on the counter and taken to the police office. It is expected the proprietors will be arrested today.

Advices from Idaho are to the effect that farmers there are holding their wheat for better prices, and that but yery little is being marketed. At Idaho Falls wheat is quoted at 68 cents per 100, and it is estimated that the grain raisers in that locality have 200,000 bushels of wheat that they are holding for a raise.

At Idaho Falls potatoes were largely allowed to rot and freeze in the ground. About twenty-five per cent of the crop, or 250 to 300 car loads, was pitted for the spring market, and the chances are that the most of them will freeze, consequently there is liable to be a potato famine in that region before spring.
